National Day of Prayer
Top, members of the Hoopeston Community Children’s Choir sang an a cappella rendition of “God Bless America” as prayer leaders watch during Thursday’s National Day of Prayer at Hoopeston City Hall. Bottom, approximately 60 people attended the event, which featured scripture readings and prayers from representatives of city government, first responders, education, social services, healthcare, agriculture, business and food services. The event was sponsored by Hoopeston Area Ministerial Association.
